

Cleantech Investor and 3B NEXUS have linked up to create Cleantech Investor NEXUS.

Cleantech Investor NEXUS combines the opportunity for companies to reach a wide audience of potential investors around the world, with the intimacy of a specialist event and a select, invited investor audience.

Company presentations are filmed and streamed live to the cleantech investor audience around the world. The presentations will be available for on-demand viewing immediately after the event and will continue to be hosted, streamed and promoted for twelve months.

Who should present?

- Public or private cleantech companies and entrepreneurs seeking to raise funds and to commercialise technologies.

Why present?

- Publisher backed event: ensures that companies benefit from specialist media coverage with an investor focus
- Present to an invited audience of investment professionals in London
- Broadcast live to the worldwide cleantech investor and targeted sub-sector audiences
- Extensive post-event marketing of each presentation webcast.

The Package

- A half hour presentation including Q&A: your time to get the message across
- Meet investors face to face
- Two page profile of your company in the event pack and on the Cleantech Investor website
- Half page summary of the company profile printed in an issue of Cleantech magazine
- Live webcast of your presentation streamed to an online audience worldwide; published for on-demand viewing immediately after the event for twelve months with unlimited uploads of your relevant documents to complement the webcast
- Webcast and the two page profile will be available for streaming/publishing on your company website post event.
